When the Applicant files the Witness and Exhibit List, copies of the exhibits are to be left with the Commission so that they can be marked sequentially by the court reporter. While the Applicant may retain its oversized exhibits, reduced copies must be made available to the Commission on or before noon on Thursday, November 13, 2014. Documents or exhibits not identified on Applicant's Exhibit List may not be introduced into the record by Applicant.

In appropriate circumstances a Commission Member receiving or otherwise participating in such a prohibited communication can be disqualified from acting further on the Application before the Commission.

Additionally, when acting as an Administrative Law Judge, each Commission Member is prohibited (pursuant to Indiana Code section 4-21.5-3-12) from commenting publicly, except as to hearing schedules or procedures, about pending proceedings.
