

STATE OF INDIANA
Board of Tax Commissioners

In the matter of the Petition for) Correction of an Error, Form 133) Petition No.: 20-025-97-3-7-00013

Personal Property

Assessment Year: 1997

Petitioner: Tony Hurley/Shane Mosiman
 1627 El Reno Street
 Elkhart, IN 46516

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The State Board of Tax Commissioners (State Board), having reviewed the facts and evidence, and having considered the issues, now makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Issue

Whether personal property was assessed in error.

Findings of Fact

1. If appropriate, any finding of fact made herein shall also be considered a conclusion of law. Also if appropriate, any conclusion of law made herein shall also be considered a finding of fact.

2. Pursuant to IC 6-1.1-15-12, Tony Hurley and Shane Mosiman filed a petition requesting a correction of an error by the State Board. The Form 133 (Board Ex. A) was filed on September 21, 1998. The County Board of Review's Final Determination is dated September 14, 1998.
3. Pursuant to IC 6-1.1-15-4, a hearing was scheduled for December 18, 2001 at 11:00 AM. Notice of said hearing (Board Ex. B) was mailed to Tony Hurley and Shane Mosiman at the address listed on the petition. Notice of said hearing was mailed on November 26, 2001.
4. On December 18, 2001, hearing officer Joseph Stanford was present to conduct an administrative hearing on the Form 133 petition. Neither the Petitioner nor any representative appeared at the hearing. Bob Price appeared on behalf of Concord Township.
5. The Petitioner did not contact the State Board or the hearing officer prior to the scheduled hearing date and did not request a continuance of the hearing.
6. The hearing officer verified that notices of hearing were timely mailed, with proof of mailing (Board Ex. C). The hearing notice mailed to the Petitioner was returned to the State Board (Board Ex. D). The Petitioner moved and left no forwarding address.

Conclusions of Law

1. The Petitioner is limited to the issues raised in the Form 133 petition filed with the State Board. Ind. Code § 6-1.1-15-1(e) and -3(d). See also Form 133 petition requiring the Petitioner to identify the specific error to be corrected. The State Board has the discretion to address any issue once an appeal has been filed by the taxpayer. Joyce Sportswear Co. v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 684 N.E. 2d 1189, 1191 (Ind. Tax 1997). In this appeal, such discretion will not be exercised and the Petitioner is limited to the issues raised in the Form 133 petition filed with the State Board.

2. The State Board is the proper body to hear an appeal of the action of the County pursuant to Ind. Code § 6-1.1-15-3.

A. Burden

3. Ind. Code § 6-1.1-15-3 requires the State Board to review the actions of the PTABOA, but does not require the State Board to review the initial assessment or undertake reassessment of the property. The State Board has the ability to decide the administrative appeal based upon the evidence presented and to limit its review to the issues the taxpayer presents. Whitley Products, Inc. v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 704 N.E. 2d 1113, 1118 (Ind. Tax 1998) (citing North Park Cinemas, Inc. v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 689 N.E. 2d 765, 769 (Ind. Tax 1997)).
4. In reviewing the actions of the PTABOA, the State Board is entitled to presume that its actions are correct. “Indeed, if administrative agencies were not entitled to presume that the actions of other administrative agencies were in accordance with Indiana law, there would be a wasteful duplication of effort in the work assigned to agencies.” Bell v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 651 N.E. 2d 816,820 (Ind. Tax 1995). The taxpayer must overcome that presumption of correctness to prevail in the appeal.
5. It is a fundamental principle of administrative law that the burden of proof is on the person petitioning the agency for relief. 2 Charles H. Koch, Jr., Administrative Law and Practice, § 5.51; 73 C.J.S. Public Administrative Law and Procedure, § 128. See also Ind. Code § 4-21.5-2-4(a)(10) (Though the State Board is exempted from the Indiana Administrative Orders & Procedures Act, it is cited for the proposition that Indiana follows the customary common law rule regarding burden).

6. Taxpayers are expected to make factual presentations to the State Board regarding alleged errors in assessment. Id. These presentations should both outline the alleged errors and support the allegations with evidence. "Allegations, unsupported by factual evidence, remain mere allegations." Id. (citing Herb v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 656 N.E. 2d. 890, 893 (Ind. Tax 1995)). The State Board is not required to give weight to evidence that is not probative of the errors the taxpayer alleges. Whitley, 704 N.E. 2d at 1119 (citing Clark v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 694 N.E. 2d 1230, 1239, n. 13 (Ind. Tax 1998)).
7. The taxpayer's burden in the State Board's administrative proceedings is two-fold: (1) the taxpayer must identify properties that are similarly situated to the contested property, and (2) the taxpayer must establish disparate treatment between the contested property and other similarly situated properties. In this way, the taxpayer properly frames the inquiry as to "whether the system prescribed by statute and regulations was properly applied to individual assessments." Town of St. John V, 702 N.E. 2d at 1040.
8. The taxpayer is required to meet his burden of proof at the State administrative level for two reasons. First, the State Board is an impartial adjudicator, and relieving the taxpayer of his burden of proof would place the State Board in the untenable position of making the taxpayer's case for him. Second, requiring the taxpayer to meet his burden in the administrative adjudication conserves resources.
9. To meet his burden, the taxpayer must present probative evidence in order to make a prima facia case. In order to establish a prima facia case, the taxpayer must introduce evidence "sufficient to establish a given fact and which if not contradicted will remain sufficient." Clark, 694 N.E. 2d at 1233; GTE North, Inc. v. State Board of Tax Commissioners, 634 N.E. 2d 882, 887 (Ind. Tax 1994).

10. In the event a taxpayer sustains his burden, the burden then shifts to the local assessing officials to rebut the taxpayer's evidence and justify its decision with substantial evidence. 2 Charles H. Koch, Jr. at §5.1; 73 C.J.S. at § 128. See Whitley, 704 N.E. 2d at 1119 (The substantial evidence requirement for a taxpayer challenging a State Board determination at the Tax Court level is not "triggered" if the taxpayer does not present any probative evidence concerning the error raised. Accordingly, the Tax Court will not reverse the State Board's final determination even though the taxpayer demonstrates flaws in it).

11. The Form 133 petition is denied for the failure of the taxpayer to notify the State Board of a change of address, and for failure to appear at the administrative hearing and present evidence in support of the alleged errors of assessment.
