

Indiana Young Readers Center

Indiana Young Readers Center

The Indiana Young Readers Center opened its doors in October of 2016 and is an official Bicentennial Legacy Project. The Center houses a unique collection of books for children and teenagers about Indiana and by Indiana authors and illustrators. An expansive list of Indiana authors and illustrators can be found at www.childrensauthors.in.gov.

The Indiana Young Readers Center includes interactive exhibits for youth to learn more about Indiana authors, how to become writers and illustrators, fun facts about Indiana, and genealogy basics to create their own family trees. Special events and programs for kids will be held at the Center to connect them with local authors and illustrators.
