CHEW ON THIS: WHAT DIVIDES US?

On April 23, Indiana Humanities is hosting Chew on This: What divides us? It's a statewide dinner party inviting Hoosiers to share a meal and talk about how we relate to each other across boundaries, what makes it difficult to do so, and whether it's harder now than it used to be. Each table will be led by an expert facilitator, someone who brings special insight into why we do or don't manage to get along with one another.

Facilitators and locations:

Dr. Terri Jett professor of political science, Butler University Amblesia Indianapolis	Tory Flynn director of communications, Hillenbrand The Sherman Batesville
Tim Swarens journalist Roster's Kitchen Indianapolis	Micah Towery writer and scholar Tapastrie South Bend
Rima Shahid executive director of Women4Change Indiana divvy Carmel	Andrea Kern Northeast community liaison, Office of Community and Rural Affairs Praximo Fort Wayne

Registration is required at

INDIANA WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL

CATALYZED BY INDIANA HUMANITIES

The Indiana Women's Suffrage Centennial marks the anniversary of the 19th Amendment in 1920. We invite Hoosiers to honor the ideas and ideals that fueled the suffrage movement in Indiana, and the people who led the way, to engage in a conversation about inclusion, equity, perseverance and power; to consider what remains to be done to ensure that our democracy truly includes everyone; and to identify and act on the lessons of the women's suffrage movement.

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITY

A wooden park bench is the central focus, positioned on a concrete sidewalk. The bench has a classic design with vertical slats on the backrest and curved armrests. In the background, a red brick building with a shopfront is visible, along with a street and lush green foliage. A planter box with purple and white flowers sits in front of the bench. The text "SIX TIPS FOR SUCCESS" is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font across the middle of the bench.

SIX TIPS FOR SUCCESS

1. INVEST IN GREAT PHOTOGRAPHY

2. BUILD AMBASSADORS

4. SURVEY PEOPLE

5. DEVELOP A BRAND

6. MAKE IT INTERACTIVE
